

📍 SPRING 2026 Tango Dance Classes* with Muna Swairjo

In joyful anticipation of Crescendo's April 25-26 concerts: Stepping into Song: A Choral Performance of Tango's Rhythmic Spirit featuring Misatango and "Eine Jüdische Kantate" (A Jewish Cantata) – A U.S. Premiere by Martín Palmeri

*The 4/10 Workshop is co-sponsored by The Center on Main, Falls Village, CT

Join us for immersive tango dance classes that connect movement, rhythm, and the passionate spirit of Latin American music! Whether you're brand new to tango or have dance experience, these classes offer an exciting way to step inside the music before hearing it live in concert.

Workshop Highlights

Core Fundamentals: Master the essentials of connection, posture, and musicality in every 60-minute session.

Flexible Learning: Classes are non-progressive, meaning you can drop in for one session or join several to refine your skills at your own pace.

No Barriers: No partner or prior dance experience is required—just bring your curiosity!

Expert Demos: Each session includes a professional demonstration by the instructor and her partner to inspire your journey.

Auditors Welcome: Not ready to dance yet? Auditors are encouraged to watch and learn, though registration is still required.

Meet Your Instructor

The sessions are led by Muna Swairjo, a renowned Tango Artist and coach. As the owner of The Garage Dance Studio and a coach at the Hartford Argentine Tango Society, Muna brings years of expertise and a passion for building a solid foundation in tango fundamentals.
